

CARL J. MAC WILLIAMS, CIVIC LEADER, IS DEAD

Carl MacWilliams

TODAY IS Veterans' Day. Many from Albany will participate in the parade in Hayward, beginning at 10 a.m. City Hall, schools and the post office are closed. Most other establishments, including banks, are open.

CARL MacWILLIAMS, one of Albany's most enthusiastic boosters, is dead. If a project was good for the city, Carl was in the middle of it. For years, he spearheaded one thing after another, the Cross on the hill, the Art show and Bazaar, the Lions Literature, beautification, encouraging new businesses, work for the blind. The list goes on and on. Shortly before his death, he became enthusiastic about lighting Leany Field after attending Albany's first night football game. He would have pushed it had he lived. Carl was, as he said about others in tributes in the Lions Club Lampoon, a builder, a good friend, good citizen and a wonderful person who will be missed in "Wee Village Albany." Our most sincere sympathy to his bereaved family. He was 68, a widower, the wife who shared his hobbies, projects and life for 32 years. He always referred to her affectionately in the Lampoon as "Miss Blue." Irene is secretary of Albany Chamber of Commerce.

GERTRUDE HUFF, a widow who lives on San Carlos, is home after 12 days in the hospital, where seven pins were put in her broken hip. The tragic part of Mrs. Huff's story is that she was injured through the carelessness of a young girl bicycle rider, who came into her on the sidewalk while the Albany pool. Mrs. Huff was on her way to a class at the high school about 6:20 Tuesday, Oct. 20. It was daylight. The force of her fall smashed her sewing box and broke her watch. The girl, about 16, helped pick up the sewing box, said, "I'm sorry," and rode off east on Portland. Her hair was light, medium length, and she was wearing a light blue dress.

Among Lions projects he enthusiastically supported were the bench at the Freedom Shrine, wading pool in Memorial park, the lighted cross on Albany Hill, the 25th anniversary of Lions tree-planting project and work with the blind and senior citizens.

At the time of his death, he was Albany's chairman for United Nations. He had been active in the Berkeley-Albany United Nations organization. In addition, he was a member of the Richmond Museum association, active in the Electrical Inspectors' association, past president and 30-year member of IBEW, local 32, columnist for the Contra Costa Labor Day (union bulletin), editor of the newsletter for Northern California Whippet Fanciers' association and owner, with his wife, of two racing whippets.

He had worked on behalf of many charitable associations, including the March of Dimes.

His only survivor is his wife, Irene, of Albany, to whom he had been married 32 years in October.

Memorials may be directed to Albany Lions Club Youth and Welfare Fund, Box 6303, Albany, or IBEW Local 302 Sick committee, Pleasant Hill.

'City flags were at half mast last week in tribute to Carl J. MacWilliams, 64, longtime Albany resident and civic leader, who died last Wednesday afternoon at Alta Bates hospital of complications following lung surgery.

Funeral services were conducted at Ellis-Olson mortuary Saturday afternoon by Albany lodge 686, F&AM, of which he was Past Master.

A native of Franklin, Pa., he had lived here 44 years and was an electrician for Bechtel corporation, electrical contractors, for 35 years.

He was first appointed to Albany's Planning and Zoning commission in 1942 by the late Ernest C. Blow. He had been chairman of the commission and at the time of his death was serving as the appointee of Councilman Lewis Howell. He had also been a member of the Park and Recreation and Civil Service commission, past president of Albany Democratic club and of Albany Lions club.

As a Lion for many years, he edited the newsletter, Albany Lions Lampoon, and for nine years made the club scrapbook. He won top scrapbook honors for California-Nevada one year and the District 4C3 honors on many occasions. He was a photographer, taking all Lions club pictures and many for other groups.

Albany Lions presented him with their Award of Merit for "distinguished service, loyalty and devotion to the objectives and furtherance of Lionism."

Rainfall Ahead

Albany's rainfall is now ahead of last year's 3.16 inches for the season.

Since the rains began in earnest on election day, George Bernard has measured 2.78 inches for the week and 3.90 inches for the season.

Athlete of the Week

RALPH FRUGULIETTO scored four touchdowns in two games as tight end for the Junior Varsity football team. Against John Swett, he caught two scoring tosses of 40 and 36 yards. A sophomore, Ralph also plays defensive end where he recovered a fumble that set up a score and made some key tackles in leading the JVs to victory over John Swett.

Vets' Parade Today

ALBANY is represented on the committee planning today's Regional Veterans' Day Parade at 10 a.m. in Hayward, by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams, seated left, representing Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary. Williams is chairman of the parade. Others are Hal Eilers and Thomas McCurdy, both of Emeryville VFW.

Last Rites Saturday for JoAnn Alpegin Dahlstrom

Scores of sorrowing friends and relatives paid final tribute at St. Jerome's Catholic church in El Cerrito Saturday morning to JoAnn Alpegin Dahlstrom, 32, of Berkeley, who died unexpectedly Wednesday from complications of pregnancy.

Her funeral was in the same church where she had been married in a fashionable formal ceremony in July, 1967, to Robert Edward Dahlstrom.

A graduate of Albany High school and San Jose State, Mrs. Dahlstrom was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alpegin of El Cerrito. Her first child, who would have been born in a couple of weeks, died with her.

Ellis-Olson Mortuary's drawing room chapel was banked with flowers for the recitation of the Rosary Friday evening. Many of those who came had to stand in the hallway. Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery in San Pablo.

Born in Albany, the popular young matron was a primary school teacher in Marin County and San Jose before accepting a position in Berkeley. She retired in June to await the birth of her baby. She was a member of the California Teachers association.

In addition to her husband and parents, she is survived by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Alpegin of Albany and Mrs. Nell Walter of San Francisco; mother-in-law, Mrs. Barbara J. Dahlstrom of San Francisco; brother-in-law, Walter Dahlstrom of Pacific, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Bob Nora Wins Contest

Bob Nora took first place in the VFW Speech contest last Tuesday at Albany High school, speaking on "Freedom, Our Heritage."

Jim Wallman won second; Lynn Mejia, third, and Bob Nichols, fourth. All speakers are in Richard Hillman's speech class at Albany High school.

Bob received $30, now goes to local and station competition. If he wins at state level, he receives an expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., and New York City, where he competes for the $6,000 prize. He could win up to $23,000 with the same taped speech.

Three speakers will appear at Albany Rotary club soon. All speeches will be broadcast on KPAT.

Citizen Protests Survey On Utility Users Tax

Following charges by Robert McKnight of 785 Taft, a renter, that City Council is making second class citizens of renters, is anticipating taxation without representation and attempting to ramrod a Utility Users tax through, Councilmen requested the Times to print a public opinion blank today.

A questionnaire concerning the opinions of property tax payers about the tax was sent out with the explanation of where tax money goes, which is required by law. An item in the Times last week indicated the percentage of response for and against the tax. McKnight said it is not fair to prohibit renters from "voting" on the matter. He was told the City is under no legal obligation to seek public opinion.

McKnight was told the tax has been discussed for two years and that before Councilmen would impose it, they would hold public hearings, properly and legally advertised. All those in favor or against such a tax would be heard at that time.

Following a lengthy discussion, Councilman Richard Clark moved to ask the Times to print a public opinion blank. Because the paper is circulated throughout Albany, this would give renters an opportunity to be heard.

(Response from property taxpayers to date represents 525 answers of a possible 3,740. Sixty-nine per cent are in favor, 26 per cent against and five per cent have other comments.)

Council, at the request of Albany Chamber of Commerce, dedicated the Holiday season to Albany Armed Service personnel in recognition of the annual Yule Pool, proclaimed the first week in November as Prisoner of War Week, asking signatures on petitions to obtain information on the 1,600 prisoners held by North Vietnamese, will appoint a representative to Northern Alameda County Drug Abuse, authorized advertising for bids for the reconstruction of Buchanan extension (to be paid with gas tax funds).

A variance to construct a carport within 10 inches of the property line at 1054 Talbot was granted following a public hearing.

Resolutions adopted established three parking zones, supported a tax increase for East Bay Regional Park district, concurred with Long Beach on using surplus military aircraft for fighting forest fires and commended Marty Webb for services to the city and on the Traffic and Safety commission.

Sponsorship of the Veterans' Day parade was held over one week. Councilmen indicated they intend to attend the parade in Hayward today (Wednesday).

The meeting was adjourned in memory of Carl J. MacWilliams for his dedicated service to the city. Councilman Lewis Howell moved for an appropriate resolution stressing Carl's dedication to working on behalf of senior citizens with regard to taxes and construction of the Senior Center, the tree planting, Lions club and working for the city on the Planning and Zoning commission, Civil Service commission, Beautification committee and other committees. Other councilmen echoed his sentiments. Mayor H. F. Call said, "In Lions club he is one we can't replace. This is a great loss. ... I didn't believe in something, he'd stand up and tell you. ..."

Council will send letters of congratulations to all successful candidates in the Nov. 3 election, expressing a willingness to work with them.

Roger Healy, new Pacific Telephone manager for Albany, was introduced.

The meeting adjourned at 9:20 p.m.

Note of Thanks

I wish to thank Albany police and fire departments for their quick response Sunday night when my husband, Clifford Filbert, suffered a stroke. He has been transferred to Richmond hospital and is in critical condition.

Frank Knapp Night Will Be Saturday Night, Nov. 14

The Annual Frank Knapp-Post 292 Rehab dinner-dance will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday night at the Albany Veterans' Memorial building with a buffet dinner until 9:30 p.m. and dancing until 2 a.m.

All proceeds are disbursed by Albany post and auxiliary for veterans' welfare in Martinez and Livermore Veterans' Administration hospitals and to individual veterans and their families.

Instituted by the late Frank Knapp (with the assistance of his wife, Lucille, this year's honorary chairman) five years ago, the first benefits were held at his 1089 Club on San Pablo Ave. All proceeds from 11 a.m. to closing time were donated to the rehabilitation fund.

After Mr. Knapp retired, the post transferred the dinner and dance to the Veterans' building.

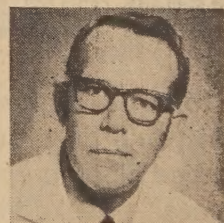

Frank Knapp died in 1969 but the traditional event on the Saturday closest to Veterans' Day continues. This year's chairman is Alvin (Hap) Willis, past commander of post 292.

Albany Playboy club will be open for guests and the famous "tipples waitresses" of the auxiliary unit will serve patrons in the auditorium.

Many prizes are offered. No reservations are necessary, but tables for eight may be reserved in advance.

A STORY OF CHANGE

In 1932, when our firm was founded, people didn't really know much about funeral service. It was a mysterious subject which no one wanted to think about, much less discuss.

We have since moved into an enlightened age. People, young and old alike, now recognize funeral service as an inevitable need — one which they should consider and take every possible step to prepare for.

As we mark this, the 38th Anniversary of Ellis-Olson Mortuary, we are grateful for living in an era and area where people seek the truth. And we pledge to continue working with and for the public toward an even greater understanding in the years ahead.

It takes a lot of energy to serve Californians without "brownouts"

It takes more energy every day to support the quality of life we all enjoy. To meet this ever-increasing demand without "brownouts" or "blackouts" we must continue building new power plants and service facilities. We're investing $400 million in construction this year to do just that.

Nowadays even more energy is needed to help protect our environment—running such things as sewage and waste treatment plants, air pollution abatement systems, recycling processes and rapid transit. Further development of pollution reduction methods as time goes on will rely on this energy.

Clean, dependable natural gas and electricity are as essential for modern living comfort in a desirable environment as they are for jobs and a prosperous economy. We take pride in providing Californians that energy reliably, economically and with minimal intrusion on the environment.
